Cargo terminal at IGIA

2647. SHRI TARA CHARAN MAJUMDAR: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Cargo terminal at Indira Gandhi International Airport has started in full swing;

(b) whether Government's attention has been drawn to certain reports indicating that exporters' associations complaining that export operations had come to a near standstill;

(c) if so, the details of conflicting reports; and

(d) the time by when the cargo terminal at IGI Airport will commence its normal working?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING) SHRI C. M. IBRAHIM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) Reports appeared in certain newspapers which alleged that the export operations at Air Cargo Unit, IGI Airport have come to standstill due to collapse of computer system. The computerised processing of the export documents pertaining to duty free goods and for Drawback at the Air Cargo Unit IGI Airport under the Delhi Customs commenced with effect from 3.6.1996 and 1.11.1996 respectively. Due to the changeover from manual to computerised system the number of documents cleared in the first few days was less than the normal output. To meet the exact requirements of the computerised system, the documents received from exporters had been returned. However, the system has stabilised and is working satisfactorily.
